In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

An Act establishing a sick leave bank for Theodore S. Bielecki, an employee of the Department of Correction.

Whereas, the deferred operation for this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to establish forthwith a sick leave bank for a certain employee of the Department of Correction, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Notwithstanding any general or special law or rule or regulation to the contrary, the department of correction shall establish a sick leave bank for Theodore S. Bielecki, an employee of the Department of Correction. Any employee of the department of correction may voluntarily contribute 1 or more sick, personal or vacation days to the sick leave bank for use by said Theodore S. Bielecki. Whenever Theodore S. Bielecki terminates employment with said department of correction or requests to dissolve the sick leave bank, the balance of the sick leave time shall be transferred to the department of correction paid leave bank. Sick leave bank days shall not be used for absences unrelated to the illness or disability that necessitated the establishment of the sick leave bank as determined by the department of correction.
